

LTTE killings at Polonnaruwa. (1995, October 23) The Daily news.

Polonnaruwa acting magistrate R. M. G. Ranatunga conducting inquiries at the mortuary of Welikanda hospital where the bodies of the victims lie.

Two injured infants under treatment at Polonnaruwa Base hospital.

A charred shell of a house torched by the terrorists.

The LTTE terrorists who descended on the Sinhala village Bowatte in Welikanda in the Polonnaruwa district early on Saturday morning hacked to death 37 men, women and children. Seven villagers escaped with injuries. The terrorists torched the homes of the victims before making their getaway.