Seven more LTTE escapees captured

MADRAS, Aug. 30

Seven LTTE cadres, among the 43 who escaped from the special camp at Vellore a fortnight ago, were captured by the police in the Mettur forest on Tuesday. Two of them consumed cyanide and they have been hospitalised.

They were caught by the personnel of Special Task Force (STF) who were on the look-out for the sandalwood smuggler-turned-poacher Veerappan.

The police gave the names of the arrested as Suman, Mahendran, Nagulan, Maran, Raja, Theresan and Kumar. — [The Hindu].
