

7 killed in Sri Lanka Attacks. (1989, January 09). The New York Times.

THE NEW YORK TIMES, MONDAY, JANUARY 9, 1989

7 Killed in Sri Lanka Attacks

COLOMBO, Sri Lanka, Jan. 8 (AP) — Tamil guerrillas ambushed Sri Lankan and Indian Army patrols in two incidents that left at least six soldiers and a civilian dead, military officials said today. Three Sri Lankan soldiers and a civilian driver were killed and three were seriously wounded in an attack Saturday night near Padaviya, 145 miles northeast of Colombo, officials said. In the other attack Saturday, they said, Tamil guerrillas killed three Indian soldiers at Trincomalee, 147 miles northeast of Colombo.