Sri Lankan man slashed by bottle-wielding pair

TORONTO — A 26-year-old Sri Lankan was slashed by two men wielding broken beer bottles in what is believed to be a racially motivated attack. "They cut the hell out of him," Det. Cliff McConnell said Monday. "We must put a stop to these kinds of hate crimes." The man told police he was walking early Sunday when two men approached him, produced broken beer bottles and slashed the man's face and body. It was the third attack on a Sri Lankan in Toronto this month.
